What's Poppin'? Students will experience an action-packed adventure unlike ever before as they develop critical thinking skills that will help them understand and communicate about the world around them. Whether students prefer to follow the latest sporting news and how it is impacting our political culture, or become skilled at understanding international events and how it impacts us here in the United States, there is something for everyone; students are surely to get a taste of the world around them.

Required Materials (daily):

1. Junior Scholastic Magazine (will be provided for students)
2. Composition Book
3. Binder
4. Writing utensil (pencil or pen)

Students will be provided with Junior Scholastic magazines every month that they will need to use for various assignments. Students will also need to be ready to utilize a variety of social media to access online sources that will be beneficial both inside and outside of the classroom.

Homework: Complete homework by assigned due dates before class begins. Late homework results in 75% credit after one day, 50% credit after second day, then 0% three days or later.

Grades: Current grade averages, homework assignments and quiz grades can be accessed through our STI system on our website: tcalw.org/academics/inow.

Evaluation: Scale:

70% - Projects and Quizzes

30% - Homework and daily activities

A= 90-100%

B= 80 - 89%

C=70-79%

D=60-69%

F=Below 60%

Goals for your student:

1. Talk about the news/events from an informed perspective
2. Learn how to listen to other people's opinions about world events
3. See the events that are taking place with a Biblical Worldview
4. Differentiate between fact and opinion, bias and unbiased news
5. Be able to use a 6th sense to see the world around them 😊

Behavior Expectations: We have high expectations for all students. Students are expected to achieve academic excellence while being kind at all times.

Respect - Respect yourself, respect others, and respect your school. Keep your hands, feet and objects to yourself. Keep your cell-phone put away in locker from 7:30am until 3:20pm.

Effort - Pay attention, listen carefully, and always do your best. Actively listen and participate in all classroom activities.

Attitude - Be positive, pleasant, helpful, and courteous. Keep negative comments to yourself.

Cooperation - Be willing to work with anyone. Use the correct voice level. Share and participate.

Honesty - Always tell the truth.
